LANTHORN

Shadows are not enough. They are the vague images of objects that once lived and breathed, laughed and cried, worked and played. Most numerous are the shadows of the past, those beloved scenes faded into forgotten memory. They lie dormant awaiting the spark to set them blazing with new brilliance. If this Lanthorn can make your memories of Susquehanna more vivid and more meaningful in years to come, then we, the Staff, have fulfilled our purpose. Only then will you realize that shadows are not enough.

DEDICATION

With gratitude and deep affection this book is dedicated to

Dr. Percy Mathias Linebaugh

for his distinguished and faithful service to Susquehanna University to the Art of Music and to the Community

Dr. Percy Mathias Linebaugh came to Susquehanna to teach music in September, 1921, and has remained here to the present time. After the death of Dr. E. E. Sheldon in 1950, Dr. Linebaugh succeeded him as Director of the Conservatory of Music and a year later received from Susquehanna University the degree of Doctor of Music, honoris causa.

It was in 1913 that Dr. Linebaugh as a college freshman undertook his study of the pipe organ with Dr. E. E. Sheldon at Lebanon Valley College. Later he studied organ with Charles Courboin of Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore and with Ralph Kinder of Holy Trinity Church in Philadelphia. Several summers also were spent in study at New York University.

During his many years at Susquehanna, Dr. Linebaugh has played an important part in our campus life. Through his kind-hearted interest, he has helped many students in the Conservatory as well as in the other departments of the University. Dr. Linebaugh serves as program chairman of the Star Course. An incomparable artist on the pipe organ, Dr. Linebaugh has been serving as organist of Trinity Lutheran Church, Selinsgrove, since 1927.

With great pride, the Junior Class of Susquehanna University dedicates this book to Dr. Percy Mathias Linebaugh as a token of appreciation for what he has contributed to our college during more than thirty years of unselfish service.

ALMA MATER

The Story we would tell you, friends,
Would cover many a book;
The subject matter of the same
Is found in every nook
Of old S. U.'s broad campus,
The common battle-ground,
Whose trees might whisper secrets grave,
Amusing, and profound.

Chorus

Of Susquehanna now we sing;
Let Susquehanna's praises ring;
Loyal to her by night and by noon,
We'll raise the Orange and Maroon;
Loyal to her by night and by noon,
We'll raise the Orange and Maroon.

How dear to one and all the name
Their Alma Mater bears,
When they have left its classic halls,
To shoulder worldly cares,
Of winning maids and noble lords
Of dear old college days,
Come join in recollections fond,
And tell us of your ways.

In classroom and on gridiron, friends,
S. U. will stand the test;
Defeat to her a word unknown,
Her motto, "Do your best."
With vim, then let us give the yell;
Display her banner bright,
That all may know of old S. U.
She stands for God and Right.

OFFICERS

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	WALTER ALBERT, JR.
Vice-President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	RICHARD McCARTY

With what a mixture of emotions we arrived at Susquehanna for that first September! The orientation leaders had us well in hand until the sophomores arrived and hazing began. With Charlie Coates to lead us as president, we displayed our talent as a group on Frosh Stunt Night.

Before we knew it, we were sophomores, and we got off to a good start by defeating the freshmen at the Frosh-Soph Football Game on Homecoming Day. Dick McCarty was elected as our class president, and he worked with us for two years. As sophomores, our greatest pride was the Soph Hop in Cinderella theme.

During our junior year we sponsored the May Day dance as "Paris in the Springtime," and we published the LANTHORN. Two outstanding members of our class were Rose Marie Sharretts, Homecoming Queen, and Fred Shilling, recipient of the Charles E. Covert Memorial Prize, awarded to the outstanding junior.

With Walt Albert as president, we faced our last and most memorable year at Susquehanna. Carlene Lamade was elected as Homecoming Queen, five of our members were chosen for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, and eight of our loveliest girls formed the May Day Court.

It is our sincere hope that the Class of 1955 has, in some small measure, given something to our Alma Mater in exchange for all that we have received in our preparation for what lies ahead.

When we look back upon our years at Susquehanna and our thoughts slowly move toward the present day, we can hardly believe that next year we will be seniors. It seems but yesterday that we were bowing to the sophomores and marching as very undignified figures in the Homecoming Parade.

Of course our first big event in recorded history was Frosh Stunt Night under the direction of Pat Galloway and Ed Barrett. Bill Doney has served us as president during our three years.

As sophomores, we transformed the gym into the Moulin Rouge for the annual Soph Hop, and students danced in the atmosphere of gay Paree. Our class was the first to organize the Sophomore All-School Picnic.

This year our big venture was the publication of the LANTHORN. The Class of 1956 sincerely hopes that as you leaf through these pages, you will find a true portrayal of life at Susquehanna. As the years go by, may our LANTHORN help to make the shadows of past college days come alive.

How we longed for the day when we wouldn't have to wear our dinks and for the time when we could assume the sophisticated title of "sophomore!" "Tune in on TV," our Frosh Stunt Night, gave us our first opportunity to work together as a group. Our president, George Schluchterer, appointed Carole Sadosuk as chairman of this event, and Jerry Musselman acted as master of ceremonies for the evening of entertainment.

When we finally became sophomores, we chose George Pospisil to guide us through the school year. All of us enjoyed planning the annual Soph Hop in all the sparkle and charming whiteness of a winter carnival.

Bond and Key, the oldest fraternity on the campus, was established as a local organization, and the members have continued to keep the management among themselves.

During the school year Bond and Key maintains a constant program of activities. For the past few years the fraternity has worked on a project of house renovation; this year the brothers redecorated the study rooms and purchased a new sign for the house. B & K played host to the sorority members and to the freshman girls at their spaghetti dinners. Banquets centered around special holidays are held at the house. Some of the outstanding activities this year were the Hallowe'en party, the Hobo party, and the formal spring dance.

The brothers of Bond and Key, in their associations together, emphasize loyalty to Susquehanna, and they uphold their open motto, "Bound as Knights."

On West Walnut Street stands the old English style, high-gabled residence of the largest fraternity on the campus—Phi Mu Delta. During its years of activity as a member of the national fraternity, the local Mu Alpha Chapter has attained a first-place position among its fellow chapters.

The program of Phi Mu Delta consists of two phases: educational and social. To supplement college studies, the fraternity sponsors educational forums which bring prominent speakers from all walks of life to the Susquehanna campus. The fraternity is proud to have won the inter-fraternity scholarship cup this year. Among the outstanding social events held at the fraternity house this year were the annual spring and winter formals, a Hallowe'en party, a Pioneer Party, and a traditional Ladies' Night.

Brothers of Phi Mu Delta work together to produce men of character and ability who hold high the ideals of brotherhood, democracy, and service in the college community and in modern society.

Clad in their bright red and white jackets, the members of Beta Omega chapter on campus are proud to belong to Theta Chi, one of the largest national fraternities in the United States. Through attendance at regional and national conferences, the members of Beta Omega keep in close contact with their national organization each year.

The brothers have organized a well-rounded schedule of activities. The top social event of the year was the annual Dutch Party climaxed by the crowning of the Dutch Queen. Other socials included a Hallowe'en party, a Christmas party, an Esquire party, and a formal commencement dance. In athletics, Theta Chi members showed their ability by winning the football intramural trophy this year.

In their associations together the brothers loyally uphold their motto: "Alma Mater first and Theta Chi for Alma Mater."

"We live for each other and for Alpha Delta Pi" is the open motto of the oldest secret society for college women. The local Gamma Omicron Chapter remains in direct contact with the national headquarters and participates in sorority conventions. Also working with Gamma Omicron are the Selinsgrove Alumnae Association and the chapter patronesses.

The Alpha Delta Pi social calendar for this year contained varied events. Major highlights were the alumnae and patroness party, Thanksgiving caroling in pilgrim theme, a Christmas party for children of Selinsgrove, Christmas caroling, the annual rush party, and a dessert party. The school year was brought to a close with the annual senior-pledge banquet held at the Pine Barn Inn at Danville, Pennsylvania.

Members of Alpha Delta Pi strive to promote intellectual growth and cultural standards; for their attainments the chapter has been awarded the inter-sorority scholarship cup for the past two years. The sisters who wear the blue and white also foster social growth through ties of deep and lasting friendships.

Kappa Delta Sorority was founded by four college girls who sought to create a beautiful symbol for their aspirations and to perpetuate their friendship far into the future. Today this aspiration has been expanded and strengthened by thousands of other college women of whom we of Beta Upsilon chapter comprise a small portion.

Every year this event is celebrated with a Founders' Day Tea held on October 23. This, however, is only one of many social activities which included, in addition, this year a fall hayride, a serenade, the annual patroness party, the annual senior and pledge banquets, and the rush party. Each year Beta Upsilon sponsors the Blood Mobile on campus thus rendering a philanthropic service.

Kappa Delta seeks to promote friendship through principles of truth, of honor, and of duty, without which there can be no true friendship; the society has as its guiding light these strengthening words: "Let us strive for that which is honorable, beautiful, and highest."

Panhellenic Council

OFFICERS

President - - - MARGARET GORDON
Secretary-Treasurer - - - JESSIE SMITH
Faculty Adviser - - MISS RUTH MEISTER

The Panhellenic Council strives to maintain sorority relationships on a high plane. It is composed of the president, the rush chairman, and one elected delegate from each sorority. The dean of women acts as faculty adviser and the office of president rotates each year between Alpha Delta Pi and Kappa Delta. This fall Panhellenic planned a picnic for all non-sorority girls and sponsored the Homecoming Dance in conjunction with the Fraternity Senate. The council supervised rushing and held the annual Pledge Dance. A picnic for sorority members concluded Panhellenic's program for the year.

Fraternity Senate

OFFICERS

President - - - FREDERICK SHILLING
Chairman - - - - RUSSELL GALT
Secretary-Treasurer - MR. ROBERT MEADER

The Fraternity Senate strives to maintain a feeling of harmony among the three fraternities. It is composed of the fraternity presidents, a faculty adviser from each fraternity, and the dean of the university who acts as permanent chairman.

Fraternity rush week is under the jurisdiction of the senate. This governing body also plays an important part in campus life by planning all inter-fraternity social events.

Women's Judiciary Committee

OFFICERS

Chairman - - - - ELSIE GRUBER
President of the Student Council - RUTH SCOTT
Hassinger Hall President - ELSIE GRUBER
Seibert Hall President - MARY ELLEN KREBS
Faculty Adviser - - - MISS RUTH MEISTER

The Judiciary Committee is the women's governing body which enforces the regulations set up by the Women's Student Council. Its duties include disciplinary measures to prevent rule-breaking and penalization of any breach in rules.

Girls who belong to this group are the chairmen elected by the women student body, the presidents of the women's dormitories, the president of the Women's Student Council, and one representative from each class.

Vice-Presidents' Council

OFFICERS

President - - - - MARY ELLEN KREBS
Faculty Adviser - - - MISS RUTH MEISTER

The Vice-Presidents' Council plays an important part in maintaining peace and quiet in the girls' dormitories during study hours. The house president of Seibert Hall appoints six "V. P.'s" to help her and to give "minutes" as penalties for breaking rules; the junior counselors in Hassinger Hall, appointed by the dean of women, also constitute a part of the "V. P." Council.

Women's Student Council

OFFICERS

President - - - - - RUTH SCOTT
Secretary-Treasurer - - JOANNE MUMMERT
Faculty Adviser - - - MISS RUTH MEISTER

Being the law-making body for all women students, Women's Student Council plays an important part in maintaining high standards on the campus. This fall W. S. C. supervised the regulation program for freshman women, held a coffee hour after the football game on Parents' Day, and took charge of the election for Homecoming Queen.

The council arranged for the decoration of the two girls' dormitories at Christmas, and it sponsored open-house at the dormitories in the spring. The project for the entire year centered around revision of the dining hall regulations.

Men's Student Council

OFFICERS

President - - - - - RICHARD McCARTY
Vice-President - - - - - JOHN YEICH
Secretary - - - - - FREDERICK SHILLING
Treasurer - - - - - GARY SMITH
Faculty Adviser - - - MR. PHILIP BOSSART

The Men's Student Council supervises and regulates customs and traditions pertaining to the men of the college. It promotes a better understanding between students and faculty, it investigates any appeals made by students, and it acts as the students' representative body.

During the school year the council sponsored informal dances, assisted the Women's Student Council with the Parents' Day Tea, participated in the Homecoming Day program, took charge of the annual Freshman-Sophomore Football Game, and conducted the teacher-rating program which takes place in May.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

Susquehanna University is proud to have five outstanding seniors represented in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The candidates entered in this publication are chosen from six hundred and fifty colleges throughout America.

The campus nominating committee, composed of faculty members, considers the following qualities in selecting the candidates: scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and promise of future usefulness. May these ideals continue to win friendship, success, and happiness for the 1955 Who's Who seniors as they leave their Alma Mater to take their places in life.

MR. LAVAN ROBINSON
Director

Adding much to the spirit of music at Susquehanna, the Chapel Choir under the direction of Mr. Lavan Robinson renders many inspiring selections on the college campus and in the surrounding community. The choir, consisting of forty voices, includes Faure's Requiem, Handel's Messiah, and Bach's cantatas in its repertoire of sacred choral music. In addition to its special vocal programs, the Chapel Choir sings in the Monday morning chapel services. One of the choir's outstanding presentations in local churches was given in the special Reformation service in Zion Lutheran Church, Sunbury, Pennsylvania.

Susquehanna Singers

MRS. ALICE GIAUQUE
Director

Susquehanna Singers, the chorus class under the direction of Mrs. Alice Giauque, is organized as a girls' chorus. The girls were familiarized with many types of secular choral music, and they appeared in several of the music programs on campus.

Marching Band

Our football games at Susquehanna would not be the same without the Marching Band to heighten our enthusiasm and accompany our cheers. Its fine performances, under the direction of Dr. John Leach, provide a pleasant diversion during the half-time of each game. This year the band traveled to Swarthmore College on October 9 as guests of the Philadelphia Alumni Association; it has also added greatly to the prestige of the college by winning a one hundred dollar prize in the senior band competition at Sunbury, Pennsylvania.

Concert Band

The Concert Band, under the direction of Dr. John Leach, devotes its time to the performance of both classical and contemporary music. The band includes members not only from the Conservatory of Music but also from the other departments of the college.

DR. JOHN LEACH
Director

Following the football season, regular rehearsals began for the band's forthcoming appearances and formal concert. It gave concerts in several area high schools this year and assisted in the college May Day program. The presentation of the annual concert represented the high-point of a very successful year for the Concert Band.

The Susquehanna University Symphony aims to foster more widespread interest in our heritage of great orchestral music. Membership is open to the entire student body and to advanced instrumentalists of the surrounding communities. Music for the annual concert is selected to satisfy all musical tastes; student soloists are frequently featured in masterpieces of the repertoire. Under the direction of Mr. Russell Hatz, this year's spring concert brought a successful climax to the orchestra's season.

URSINUS 12 — SUSQUEHANNA 0

October 2 was a hot, humid, and sunny day. The Crusaders, with a freshman-studded lineup and a brand new type of offense, prepared to meet the Bears of Ursinus College. Four seniors, three sophomores, and four freshmen started the game and held the Bruins from Collegeville scoreless at the half. A blocked kick set up the first touchdown, and a 56 yard run provided the second. The Orange and Maroon could not get their split-T rolling because of numerous fumbles and penalties. Jim Anoaia, playing his fourth year, was elected captain for the game and was also chosen the outstanding player of the day.

SWARTHMORE 27 — SUSQUEHANNA 0

The temperature remained in the high 80's for the second Saturday in a row as the Crusaders traveled to Philadelphia to meet the Garnet of Swarthmore College. The Little Quakers boasted an all-veteran team running from a tricky single-wing formation. After the kickoff, the Maroon line held for three downs. On the fourth down Swarthmore completed a 40 yard pass for their first TD. With Ken Erdley and Bob Lewis leading the way, the Stagmen moved to the enemy 4 yard line only to run out of downs. Trailing 14-0 in the third period, a pass from Purnell to Erdley started another goal-ward drive but again was stopped inside the 10. After the game the team enjoyed a banquet and a professional football game made possible by the Philadelphia Alumni Club.

NATIONAL AGGIES 15 — SUSQUEHANNA 0

The National Aggies riding the crest of a three game winning streak moved into Selinsgrove on another sunny Saturday. Many parents, some of whom had traveled long distances to celebrate the annual Parents' Day at S. U., were on hand to view the game. The Orange and Maroon put up a stone wall defense in the first half to hold the Aggies to nothing. This was perhaps the most heartbreaking game of the season. Hard luck, fumbles, and penalties kept the Crusaders from scoring at least three touchdowns. Unable to move on the ground, the Farmers took to the air and clicked for two scores. The Susquehanna line play was at its best and consistently drove deep into Aggie territory. Despite the outcome, the team from Doylestown knew they had been in a rough and tough ball game.

JUNIATA 46 — SUSQUEHANNA 6

The best small college team in Pennsylvania made its appearance on our campus and displayed a terrific running and passing attack. This was the first cold Saturday of the season, but the Indians, undefeated in two years, were hot. Not all was disappointing, however, for the Staggs-coached team. They proved that they had scoring potential. Freshman Dick Purnell broke through the left side of the line and rambled 60 yards for the first Crusader touchdown of the year. The biggest thrill of the game was Bob Gulick's 64 yard run. Faking a punt deep in S. U. turf, he put on a brilliant display of broken-field running, but he was finally dragged down on the Juniata 20 yard line.

WAGNER 13 — SUSQUEHANNA 0

This was our long-awaited trip to New York. The team stopped over in Newark, New Jersey, Friday night and traveled to Staten Island on Saturday morning. High up on Grymes Hill, the Wagner Seahawks were preparing for Homecoming Day; the crowd numbered over 4,000, the largest of the season. Once again the Crusaders were clicking as they drove within the Seahawks 10 yard line three times. Trailing at halftime 6-0, the fighting Maroon team again penetrated to the 3 yard stripe, but as before they were stopped by the Green and White. With minutes remaining in the game, Wagner blocked a kick and scored their second TD to put the game on ice.

HAVERFORD 66 — SUSQUEHANNA 0

Homecoming Day at Susquehanna was again celebrated with splendor and success. The freshmen downed the sophomores in the annual Frosh-Soph Football Game, and the gym, transformed into the "Halls of Ivy," was the scene of renewed friendships and merry-making. No one wanted to think about what happened that afternoon on the University Field. The Fords came out with fire in their eyes and revenge in their minds for the lacing handed to them by the Crusaders two years ago. They scored within four seconds of the opening gun and never stopped rushing throughout the entire game. The Stagmen were simply overwhelmed. The already thin bench was emptied as injuries occurred. Chuck Bailes, George Pospisil, Jim Anolia, Bob Gulick, Lenny DeSilva, and Dick Purnell were all forced to leave the game. Only in the last quarter did the S. U. eleven threaten to score. This was the last game for Jim Anolia, Ken Erdley, Bruce Bell, Charlie Coates, and Gunner Haag, the five seniors in this season's line-up.

Basketball

This season was the turning point in the basketball fortunes of Susquehanna, not in the record of victories and losses, but in the beginning of an era in which the Crusaders were feared by the opposition for the first time in six years.

The squad, which consisted mainly of under classmen, gave an excellent account of themselves. Frank Romano displayed the finest all-around performance ever staged on the S. U. Court and is well on his way to rewriting the record book. Dwight Huseman and Valdis Avots provided additional offensive threats. Dick McCarty, Dick Owens, and Frank Smith, the senior members of the squad, played their hearts-out and added balance to the team. Many a close contest was dropped because of lack of height.

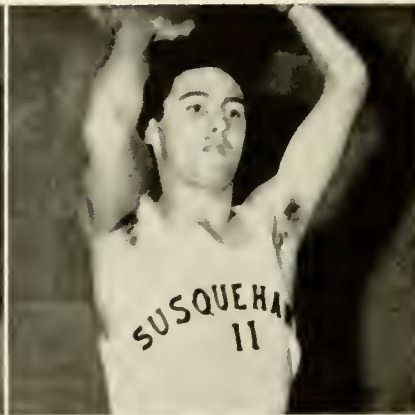

The players displayed good sportsmanship and reflected spirit and enthusiasm. Consequently, despite a mediocre record, the Pfeiffer-coached courtmen gained the experience necessary to combat rival schools in the coming years.

Baseball

In spite of the 5-6 record that the Crusader nine posted for the 1954 season, it was a surprisingly successful year with many new faces in the lineup. The victories were featured by a combination of team alertness in the pressure situations and effective clutch pitching by Hal Johnson, Ralph Sheldon and Milan Kratzer. However, a weak batting punch greatly hampered the team in most of its games, especially in the two close contests with Bucknell. Susquehanna's proudest moment of the 1954 season came with a 10-7 victory over a very strong Juniata team.

Graduation closed the curtains on the careers of Hal Johnson, Sam Ross, and Jim Dell—three stalwarts of the past four years. There appears to be good replacements in the field, but the pitching situation causes a great deal of apprehension for Coach Bastress as he prepares for the 1955 season. This apprehension is warranted when one considers that such teams as Temple, Gettysburg, Albright, Drexel, and Lebanon Valley have been added to an already difficult schedule.

Cheerleaders

Brimful of pep and enthusiasm, the cheerleaders have stimulated the fighting spirit among Susquehanna students and fans during the 1954-55 athletic season. Under the leadership of Co-captains Nancy Richards and Walter Albert the squad cheered at every pep rally, football game, and basketball game. Their vigorous yell of "Come on, team! Let's fight!" has done much to promote school spirit at Susquehanna.

ACTIVITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

*To relive the shadows of our

Homecoming

It was Homecoming again! How all of us at Susquehanna looked forward to greeting old friends and to enjoying the special events of the day! The Homecoming Parade, the Freshman-Sophomore Football Game, the Homecoming tea, and the football game with Haverford will always be remembered.

The crowning of glamorous Carlene Lamade as Homecoming Queen marked the high point of the 1954 Homecoming at Susquehanna. The covered wagon of the Centennial Class, a word of welcome from President G. Morris Smith, and the peppy drills of the marching band also added a great deal to the spirit of the festivities.

A traditional part of Homecoming Day includes the awarding of a trophy to the dormitory or fraternity house which has the most outstanding decorations. This year Seibert Hall was the proud possessor of the trophy; the white columns of Seibert porch presented a striking contrast with the quaint black silhouettes designed in a "Welcome Alumni" theme. Theta Chi, which stressed the Haverford-Susquehanna game in decorations, came in second place, and Hassinger Hall turned into the scene of "Hansel and Gretel" took third place.

The annual Homecoming Dance in the theme, "Halls of Ivy," brought this gala day of events to a close.

Susquehanna Players

The Susquehanna Players, under the direction of Mr. Axel Kleinsorg, provide some of the most enjoyable and worthwhile evenings of entertainment during the college year. This group gives students from all departments of the University an opportunity to participate in the many aspects of play production and to work towards the common goal—a successful season.

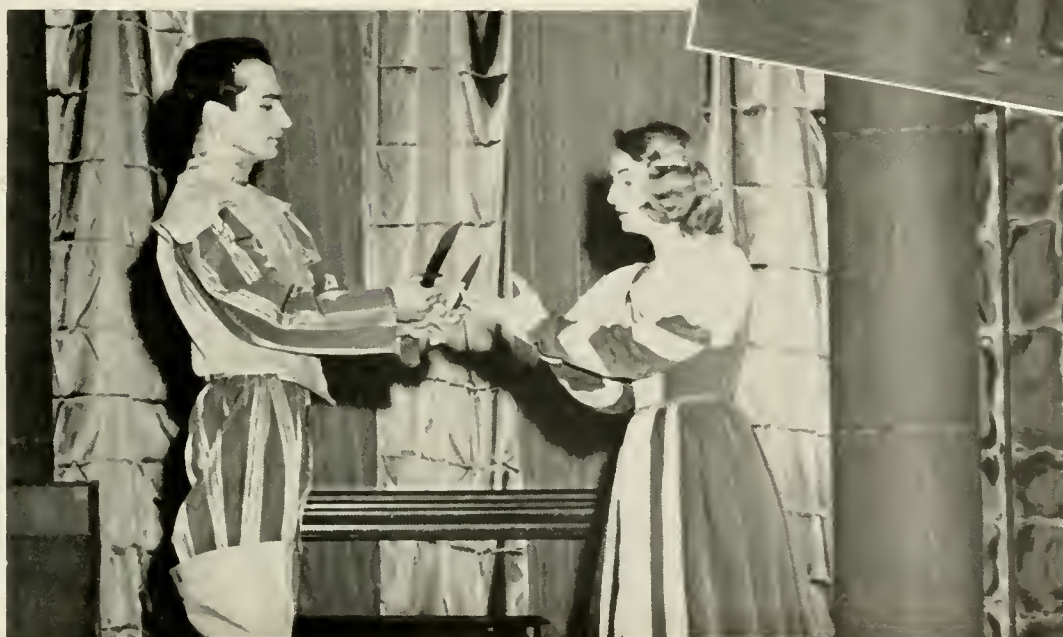

The smell of greasepaint mingled with the heavy air of tragedy as the Susquehanna Players climaxed last year's season with Shakespeare's powerfully moving Macbeth. Superb character portrayal was evidenced in the acting of Audrey Vollman and Clyde Kauffman who took the leading roles. Mournful Scottish background music and the eerie laughter of the three witches provided the atmosphere for this successful Shakespearean production.

A. A. Milne's delightful comedy, "The Dover Road", opened the 1954-55 theatrical season. Clyde Kauffman took the part of Mr. Latimer an eccentric old man who played Cupid assisted by James Showalter as his servant in the mansion on the Dover Road. The acting ability of the entire cast provided an evening of laughter for the audience.

In February the Little Theater opened its doors for "Sun Up", a comedy by Lula Vollmer. Mary Ann Bingaman was cast in the "lead", as Widow Cagle, an old woman of the North Carolina hills, who hated the law until George Pospisil, taking the role of her son, was killed in battle.

This spring the Susquehanna Players presented the annual Shakespearean Festival which lasted for one week. The 1955 production of Romeo and Juliet brought to life the best known love story of all time.

This year's LANTHORN is, perhaps more than any preceding one, a book of pictures. It was made so because of a belief that the pictures here produced will attract attention long after the words written here are of no consequence. So here they are, pictures from every mood and activity of the life of Susquehanna chained in these pages for the years to come. It is the hope of the staff that the passing of time will make the 1956 LANTHORN increase in value as it vividly casts its light on the shadowy memories of college days.

The S. C. A. plans a college career conference and a religion-in-life conference for the student body every year. The Campus Carnival sponsored by the S. C. A. this fall afforded an opportunity for all the organizations of Susquehanna to work toward a common goal. The S. C. Monthly programs are planned to enrich the cultural background of students who are taking Latin and Greek; membership is open to anyone who is interested in the classics. The influence of the Romans upon Spanish and Egyptian cultures, Greek literature, the ruins of Pompeii, and the Holy Land of today were some of the topics discussed during the year.

The Susquehanna University Chapter of the Future Teachers of America has completed its second year of existence on our campus; already it has become the largest college chapter in Pennsylvania.

Observance of American Education Week gave F. T. A. the opportunity to further its work with near-by high schools through a radio script and a one-act play. A panel of parents, a student teacher panel, and an in-service teacher panel provided a few of the interesting meetings. Highlights at the end of the year were a picnic and High School Day.

The Susquehanna University Veterans' Association, an organization interested in the welfare of the many veterans of military service who have entered Susquehanna University, was organized at the beginning of the 1954-1955 school year. Arising out of a need for a common agency, the veterans pooled the efforts and abilities of their number in order to solve the problems confronting individual veterans in their adjustment to college life. In addition, the group has invited speakers from nationally organized veterans' organizations to present the problem of veteran adjustment as they see it. Films have been shown, and discussions have been held in order to accomplish the primary purpose of the association.

The association is further dedicated to "make the services of the association available to the college community in any capacity in which its services are deemed helpful." It strives "to promote better relationships between the members of the association and the student body and to foster loyalty and service to God and country."

The Sigma Omega Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional fraternity for women, is one of one hundred and two active college chapters throughout the United States. Its primary purpose is to promote American music which Sigma Omega does by presenting annually the American Musicale. The members broadcast periodically over Radio Station WKOK, and they sponsor the annual Inter-Fraternity-Sorority Sing.

Sigma Alpha Iota's open motto, "Life is short, but art is long," encourages its sisters "to study and practice the goodness of life, the beauty of art, the meaning of music."

OFFICERS

President	-	-	-	-	CARLENE LAMADE
Vice-President	-	-	-	-	CHARLOTTE SANDT
Secretary	-	-	-	-	NANCY RICHARDS
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	MARY ANN BINGAMAN
Faculty Adviser	-				MISS FRANCES RHOADS

The national athletic honorary fraternity for women, Tau Kappa, aims to encourage good sportsmanship and arouse greater interest in women's athletics. Membership is open to any girl who obtains six hundred and fifty points earned by participation in varsity and intramural sports.

This year the Beta Chapter of Tau Kappa enhanced the social life of the campus by sponsoring a fall square dance and a winter dance.

MAY DAY COURT

Clockwise, Lower Left—Jayne Daily, Claire Haggerty, Margaret Webber, Patricia Hess, Janet Laue, Bette Vincent, Lady-in-Waiting—Jane Cline; May Day Queen—Eleanore Steffey.

May Day

Flags flying, the band playing, and people thronging to the athletic field to attend a European folk festival! What did it all mean? May Day of 1954.

Last year the theme of the pageant centered around a little European village, Malenta. Life in Malenta was full of hustle and bustle, for the villagers were enjoying their annual folk festival presented in honor of the May and of their queen. The pageant story was portrayed through pantomime, dancing, music, and narration. The crowning of lovely Queen Eleanor Steffey climaxed this student production.

Corresponding to the European atmosphere of the day, the annual May Day dance showed the work of the junior class under the chairmanship of Don Haag. The gym was decorated in the theme "Paris in the Springtime," and in a fancy-free world students danced to the music of Mal Arter and his orchestra.

MAY QUEEN — Eleanor Steffey

Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear and with a manly heart.

In Appreciation

The editor would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who have contributed so willingly of their time, services, and cooperation towards the completion of this, our 1956 LANTHORN.

The photographic work for this edition was done by Mr. Robert Sommerville of Williamsport, Pennsylvania. The book was printed by the Grit Publishing Company, also of Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

The editor feels that special recognition belongs—to William Davenport and Eugene Kolva for photographic services rendered, to George Pospisil for editorial assistance in the football section, to David Schoch for his help with the layout, to Dr. Arthur Wilson and Miss Jean Beamenderfer for their valuable faculty guidance, and to the entire LANTHORN Staff whose combined efforts brought forth from the shadows our 1956 LANTHORN.
